

Lifted Up for Us

So must the Son of Man be lifted up," Jesus says. There is a double meaning to this. Just as God told Moses to raise a bronze serpent on a pole to effect healing for the Israelites (Numbers 21:4-9), Jesus will be lifted on the pole of the cross. The image of Jesus crucified reveals how human power tries to dehumanize those who threaten the status quo or violate the norms decreed by those at the top of society's ladder. It is a horror to consider this happening to anyone, but so much more when the victim is the perfect Holy One, God in the flesh. It confronts us with humanity's rejection of God, in how we treat other human beings and in how we dehumanize ourselves by following our sinful impulses—what Ephesians calls "the passions of our flesh" (2:3).

This, though, is not the only meaning of Jesus being "lifted up," for "God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him." The cross is more than the humiliation of Jesus; it is also his glorious exaltation. The crucifixion of Jesus is his coronation as Lord of all, who rules by grace and mercy. By defeating death in the resurrection, he will indeed disrupt the status quo of shame, violence, and greed through the power of love, truth, and peace.

This was prefigured in the story of poisonous serpents. When the people looked on the emblem of their sin, a bronze model of the snakes that poisoned them after they grumbled against the Lord, they were healed. So, too, when we turn to the Crucified One, we do not find condemnation but salvation. Beholding the Savior lifted up on the cross by our sin, we receive mercy and healing. In the death of Jesus, God forgives and embraces us with eternal life. In the proclamation, prayer, song, and sacraments of our assembly, we remember and affirm that the crucified yet exalted Christ extends saving love to us and to the world.

SO
SON OF MAN
UP

Millcreek Lutheran Church
Fourth Sunday in Lent
March 10, 2024

Welcome, friends in Christ! We appreciate your presence here today. If you are a visitor, we hope you will consider joining us – knowing that you can expect to find people who love God and who want to know and love you. Visitors, please sign our guest book, fill out a visitor's card in the pew rack and introduce yourself to Pastor Scott as you leave. We're glad you are here.

Prayer: O God our heavenly Father, whose love for mankind is so intense that you gave your only Son to die on our behalf: Grant us the faith to believe his death on the cross atones for our sins, that we may know your gift of eternal life is ours. In our Redeemer's name we pray. Amen.

When we are baptized, we are baptized into the body of Christ. We understand this body to be the communion of saints, a diverse witness of men and women across time and space. Throughout its history, the church has sought to lift up Christians who have been unique, exemplary people of faith.

Today, the church invites us to remember two renewers of society. Harriet Tubman (died 1913) was born into slavery and escaped with the help of the Underground Railroad. After that, she helped about 300 others to escape slavery until the institution was abolished. After the Civil War, her home in Auburn, New York, became a center for women's rights and served the aged and poor. Sojourner Truth (died 1883), whose birth name was Isabella, was freed after slavery was abolished, and discerned a call to be a preacher. Taking the name Sojourner Truth, she set out on an evangelistic journey, where people found her testimony to be deeply moving. In later life, she also became a popular speaker against slavery and for women's rights.

Prayer of the Day

O God, rich in mercy, by the humiliation of your Son you lifted up this fallen world and rescued us from the hopelessness of death. Lead us into your light, that all our deeds may reflect your love, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading

Numbers 21:4-9

From Mount Hor [the Israelites] set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. <sup>5</sup>The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." <sup>6</sup>Then the LORD sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died.

<sup>7</sup>The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." <sup>9</sup>So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Psalm

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22; tone 8

Give thanks to the LORD, for the <sup>1</sup>LORD is good,
for God's mercy en-<sup>1</sup>dures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Let the redeemed of the <sup>1</sup>LORD proclaim that God redeemed them
from the hand <sup>1</sup>of the foe,

<sup>3</sup>gathering them in <sup>1</sup>from the lands;
from the east and from the west,
from the north and <sup>1</sup>from the south.

<sup>17</sup>Some were fools
and took re-<sup>1</sup>bellious paths;
through their sins
they <sup>1</sup>were afflicted.

<sup>18</sup>They loathed all man-<sup>1</sup>ner of food and drew near <sup>1</sup>to death's door.

<sup>19</sup>Then in their trouble
they cried <sup>1</sup>to the LORD and you delivered them

<sup>20</sup>You sent forth your <sup>1</sup>word
and healed them
and rescued them
<sup>1</sup>from the grave.

Psalm, continued

<sup>21</sup>Let them give thanks to you, LORD, for your <sup>1</sup>steadfast love
and your wonderful works

<sup>22</sup>Let them offer sacrifices
and tell of your deeds with <sup>1</sup>shouts of joy.

Second Reading

Ephesians 2:1-10

You were dead through the trespasses and sins <sup>2</sup>in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. <sup>3</sup>All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. <sup>4</sup>But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us <sup>5</sup>even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace

you have been saved—<sup>6</sup>and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup>so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup>For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—<sup>9</sup>not the result of works, so that no one may boast. <sup>10</sup>For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

Gospel

John 3:14-21

[Jesus said:] "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup>"Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. <sup>18</sup>Those who believe in him are not condemned;

but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. <sup>19</sup>And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup>For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. <sup>21</sup>But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

Sunday March 10, 2024

Today, we welcome the members and leaders of troop 70363 of Girl Scouts in the Heart of Pennsylvania, who meet here at Millcreek. Today, two of the scouts will share about the Silver Award, which is one of the Girl Scouts' highest honors. (Cadettes earn the Silver Award by researching an issue, making a plan to address it, and then taking action to improve their communities.) The scouts will also have Girl Scout cookies available for sale in the Multi-Purpose Room following worship.

You can listen to the worship service over the phone patch at 10:15 AM. Just dial 717-628-0125. You will hear a message welcoming you to Millcreek. At that point you are connected to our church sound system, so just stay on the line. You may also watch the service later on You Tube.

Don't forget to turn your clocks
AHEAD
Saturday March 9 before going to bed.

HELPING OUR NEIGHBORS DURING LENT: The Sharing Cupboard food pantry has been a local food resource since 2008. It was started at the Myerstown Church of the Brethren for people living in the ELCO School District who experience food insecurity. Since then, the pantry has seen an increase in the number of families needing help. Now they serve approximately 100 families monthly.

THE SHARING CUPBOARD asked area churches if they'd be willing to choose a month during the year to have a food drive. The Evangelism Committee at Millcreek Lutheran decided to take on this challenge and chose the month of March. Coincidentally, Lent and Easter are in March this year. The Committee will have an area in our church narthex for you to place your donations. Please pick up a list of foods at that display that the pantry is saying they need. This project will begin March 1 and end March 31. Isaiah 58:10 "Feed the hungry and help those in trouble. Then your light will shine out from the darkness..."

Members and friends of Millcreek are invited to Friedens Lutheran Church (301 West Washington Avenue in Myerstown) on Saturday, March 16 at 1:30 PM as they celebrate the Ordination and Installation of Stacy Chavis as their pastor. Bishop Dunlop and Pastor Scott (in his role as Dean of the Lebanon Conference) will be leaders in the service. This is a terrific way for the congregations in the ELCO school district to celebrate good happenings in our church and community.

Lists for information on Lenten services are on the table in the narthex. The next service (March 13 @ 7:00 PM) will be held at Tulpehocken Trinity, 961 Tulpehocken Road, Richland with Pastor Bill Wink speaking. Topic: Return to the Kingdom of God - John 18:36-38a. Light snacks/refreshments will be served after the service.

THE BLOOD DRIVE is March 21, 11:00 a.m. – 7:00p.m. See the flyer included in the bulletin for more information.

GIRL SCOUT SUNDAY is today. The Girl Scouts will meet at Millcreek to sell Girl Scout Cookies following the worship service.

THE FRIENDS OF SPANG CREST 2024 annual membership drive is presently going on and will continue till March 31. By donating towards this membership drive Friends of Spang Crest help provide special activities and projects for the Spang Crest residents. In the last year Millcreek has lost two of its longtime faithful givers to this wonderful cause and we need some additional new faces to step in with any donation certainly appreciated. Last year Millcreek helped this cause by having 23 contributors and raising $456 - please consider stepping forward this year if you didn't already. Please see Margie to contribute.

CAMP KIRCHENWALD: There will be an Open House for Camp Kirchenwald on Sunday, March 17 from 2:00-4:30 PM. Pamphlets for camp registration are in the wall rack in the narthex.
