LUKE 13:34

Judgment in the Name of the Lord

Some of us in the room, likely more of us than we imagine, know what a conviction is like. We've had experience with a physical, undisputable, black-robed conviction, the kind handed down by a judge or jury. It's a statistical fact that nearly half of the American population is personally affected in some way by the criminal justice system. Those numbers are staggering; even more so is the weight of guilt that welds itself to the convicted one's shame like steel clenching iron. To be convicted, found guilty as charged, is no small matter.

It is with such certainty and severity that Jesus unleashes his anguish over Jerusalem—anger and grief that rail with the reverberations of a gavel's blow in the courtroom when words, sharpened for penetration, are pronounced from behind a high bench. Judgments can last a lifetime, and they intentionally have the power to change futures. Jesus was about the work of God, to change futures.

There is no courtroom, no black robe, no jury of twelve peers in Luke's account of Jesus' encounter with some Pharisees. But there is an exacting judgment that rumbles like rolling boulders, a conviction meant to loiter hauntingly like shivering nightmares. Jesus' words prosecute with a burden that few gospel lines expose so solemnly; the accusations are decisive. His judgment falls on the religious.

No, we do not escape, do not get away by dismissing Jesus' words as ancient, frozen in a time long past, petrified among a people long gone, meant only for some others' failures—not our own. The judgment lives on. Pronounced then in the holy city, it ricochets even now through our sacred spaces and hallowed sanctuaries, aimed at the pious and devout who with self-appeasing righteousness look to tame God's word, rebuff God's scandalous mercies, silence God's voice, and break God's will.

The judgment: "How often . . . and you were not willing!" And yet, the promise: "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord" (Luke 13:34-35).

Millcreek Lutheran Church
Second Sunday in Lent
March 16, 2025

Welcome, friends in Christ! We appreciate your presence here today. If you are a visitor, we hope you will consider joining us – knowing that you can expect to find people who love God and who want to know and love you. Visitors, please sign our guest book, fill out a visitor's card in the pew rack and introduce yourself to Pastor Scott as you leave. We're glad you are here.

Prayer: O loving God, who has promised your redemptive love to persons of every generation even though they do not deserve it: Grant us faith to believe you have included us in your promise of salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord, that we may be united with you in a covenant relationship of redemption. Hear us for the sake of Jesus. Amen

Today's Readings

Second Sunday in Lent

March 16, 2025

Prayer of the Day

God of the covenant, in the mystery of the cross you promise everlasting life to the world. Gather all peoples into your arms, and shelter us with your mercy, that we may rejoice in the life we share in your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18

After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." <sup>2</sup>But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" <sup>3</sup>And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." <sup>4</sup>But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." <sup>5</sup>He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." <sup>6</sup>And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

<sup>7</sup>Then he said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess." <sup>8</sup>But he said, "O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?" <sup>9</sup>He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." <sup>10</sup>He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. <sup>11</sup>And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup>As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.

<sup>17</sup>When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. <sup>18</sup>On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates."

Psalm

Psalm 27; tone 9

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom then <sup>1</sup> shall I fear?

The LORD is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I <sup>1</sup> be afraid?

<sup>2</sup>When evildoers close in against me
to de- <sup>1</sup> vour my flesh,
they, my foes and my enemies,
will stum- <sup>1</sup> ble and fall.

<sup>3</sup>Though an army encamp against me,
my heart <sup>1</sup> will not fear.

Though war rise up against me,
my trust will <sup>1</sup> not be shaken.

<sup>4</sup>One thing I ask of the LORD;
one <sup>1</sup> thing I seek;

that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life;
to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek God <sup>1</sup> in the temple.

<sup>5</sup>For in the day of trouble
God will <sup>1</sup> give me shelter, hide me in the hidden places

of the sanctuary,
and raise me high up-<sup>1</sup> on a rock.

<sup>6</sup>Even now my head is lifted up above my enemies<sup>1</sup> who surround me.

Therefore I will offer sacrifice
in the sanctuary,
sacrifices of rejoicing;
I will sing and make music
<sup>1</sup> to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Hear my voice, O LORD,<sup>1</sup> when I call;
have mercy on me and<sup>1</sup> answer me.

Your face, O LORD,<sup>1</sup> I will seek.

<sup>9</sup>Hide not your face from me,
turn not away from your ser-<sup>1</sup> vant
in anger.

Cast me not away—
you have been my helper;
forsake me not,
O God of<sup>1</sup> my salvation.

<sup>10</sup>Though my father and my moth-<sup>1</sup> er
forsake me,

the LORD will<sup>1</sup> take me in.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me your<sup>1</sup> way, O LORD;
lead me on a level path,
because of<sup>1</sup> my oppressors.

<sup>12</sup>Subject me not to the will<sup>1</sup> of my foes,
for they rise up against me,
false witnesses<sup>1</sup> breathing violence.

<sup>13</sup>This I believe—that I will see the goodness<sup>1</sup> of the LORD in the land<sup>1</sup> of the living!

Take heart and wait<sup>1</sup> for the LORD!

Second Reading

Philippians 3:17—4:1

Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. <sup>18</sup>For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. <sup>19</sup>Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. <sup>20</sup>But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>21</sup>He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself.

<sup>4:1</sup>Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

Gospel

Luke 13:31-35

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to [Jesus], “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.” <sup>32</sup>He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. <sup>33</sup>Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.’ <sup>34</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! <sup>35</sup>See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

SWEET SUNDAY DONATIONS

Council has approved that we put a box in kitchen for baking items for our "Sweet Sunday Lady". I will put a box in kitchen for the next 2 Sundays for anyone to add any of the following for her use:

Flour
Granulated Sugar
Brown Sugar
Confectioners (10X) sugar
Baking Powder
Baking Soda

If anyone wants to contribute Eggs and/or Butter, please put in refrigerator.

Our hopes are to help with Charmayne's rising costs for her delicious Baked Goods.

EASTER FLOWERS

Anyone interested in purchasing Easter Flowers this year, please contact Carol Sova at 717-507-4721. This is my cell number. You may text me or call. I will confirm all orders if you don't sign-up directly at church. If you don't hear back from me to confirm, please call me.

The flowers will be available on Easter Sunday, April 20, 2025.

The choices of potted flowers are as follows: tulips (request color), daffodils (regular), hyacinths (one color or pink, blue, white trio), Easter lilies (white), L.A. Hybrid lilies) or mums. The cost is $8.00 each except for the lilies which are $9.00.

I will be available after church most Sundays or you can call me. I will place the order mid-March. If you want to specify color, please have your order in as soon as possible for the best selection. (Those I will be ordering as soon as possible as there were some supply issues in the past).

Thank you,
Carol Sova
